DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-23 are currently pending. Please take notice of the election of species requirement beginning at paragraph 3. To be fully responsive, applicant must fulfill this requirement.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-18 and 23, drawn to a curcumin composition. Please note that claims 1-16 and 23 are “use” type claims which are not a U.S. category of invention. These claims are assumed to be composition claims for the sake of restriction. Amendment of these claims to a category of invention other than composition claims may result in their placement in a different Group of invention.

Group II, claim(s) 19-22, drawn to a method of preventing or treating tissue damage caused by non-physical insult.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: US Pat. No. 6,733,802 teaches a composition that contains grape seed oil, tocopherols and Curcuma longa extract (see column 3, lines 17-22). The reference teaches using the composition as an insecticide. The reference does not teach using this composition for the same method as claimed. Thus, the reference would anticipate the claims in Group I but not the claims in Group II. Therefore, the claimed composition lacks a special technical feature with the claimed method of using the composition.

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Art Unit: 1655

The species are as follows:

A: oil selected from linseed oil, olive oil, groundnut oil, borage seed oil, hempseed oil, grape seed oil, walnut oil, wheat germ oil, soybean oil, corn oil, borage seed oil, evening primrose oil, rapeseed oil, sunflower oil or a specific combination thereof; and

B: antioxidant selected from alpha-tocopherol, dimethyl sulfoxide, gamma linolenic acid, melatonin, thiol-containing agents, enzymes, ascorbic acid, selenium, carotene, flavonoids, extracts from Astragalus membranaceus, Ginkgo biloba, Silybum marianum, Ligusticum chuaxiong, Panax ginseng, Scutellaria baicalensis, or a specific combination thereof.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species A: claims 11 and 12; species B: claims 13 and 14.

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 1-10.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: As discussed above, US '802 teaches one embodiment encompassed by the current claims. The reference does not teach all of the claimed species; thus, the species lack unity.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Susan Coe Hoffman whose telephone number is (571) 272-0963. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday, 9:30-5:30.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Terry McKelvey can be reached on (571) 272-0775. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
